

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF INVESTORS IN THE SOCIAL ECONOMY

The members of the International Association of Investors in the Social Economy wish, in the conduct of the Association to foster and support the development of finance organisations primarily in Europe, but not to the exclusion of Non European countries, which invest in undertakings of an ethical, ecological, cultural, and self-managing nature, including women's undertakings, undertakings of ethnic minorities, in undertakings whose aims are concerned with people with disabilities, healthier living, peace and the Third World, and in undertakings within the social economy generally.

The Members wish to support the development of finance organisations which not only invest in ethical undertakings but also in the conduct of their own affairs and their approach to money organise themselves in such a way as to develop working practices which are supportive of the promotion of social investments for which the Association is established

Categories of members

1. Full members: finance organisations which carry on investment activity in the social economy and which subscribe to the articles of association (available on request)
2. Associate members: non-financial organisations, but who support or work towards the development of what INAISE stands for, and which subscribe the articles of the association. This may include businesses, organisations, public authorities, groups of people or individuals that are in the process of starting a financial instrument, doing research, increasing awareness, giving or needing advice to develop their own specific initiative or to support social economy finance as a whole.
